OF THE COUNTRY. Great Hains-Crops Injured and Cattle Killed-Terrific Electrical Displays.

Various sections of the country have been visited by storms during the past few days, as the following telegrams of the 14th will show :

NEW YORK. JAMESTOWN, N. Y.: After three weeks of drought a storm of unparal-leled fury burst over this region late last night, coming from the west and severely handled, the roofs of the nding east to the Conewango Val-until it spent its fury on Scudder's Hill, in the town of Randolph. The ing was incessant, and the thunwas one continuous roll for half an hour, while haifstones fell in showers son Gault and David Thompuntil a depth of five inches in son were demolished. At New Alexplaces was reached, and in drifts they piled themselves between two and three feet high, while fields of McGrew's barn were wrecked. On grain were mown down, trees were d of their foliage and half-ripe ruit, and windows were broken. The hail-stones were as large as walnuts, oblong in shape, and jagged. Cattle driven almost wild by the ice-pebbles. The damage is far beyond calculation. as it injured many half-grown crops. the yield of which can only be esti mated. The storm spread over a wide as far as known. area. In the town of Sugar Grove James Collins's barn was struck by lightning and burned. One horse was

The loss was $1,000, and not BUFFALO, N. Y. : A very heavy rainand thunder-storm passed over Western New York last night, and reports from many points indicate that much damage was done. Many buildings were destroyed by lightning, and in some cases the hay crop, which had been gathered and stored, was burned. In some sec-tions much damage was done to standing grain by the terrific wind which accompanied the storm. Many hundred acres of winter wheat was in the bundle ready to be hauled into the barns, and will be considerably damaged by being wet. Until this setback the winter wheat crop was considered the finest known for many years. NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J.: Samuel Gassaway (colored), a prosperous kindlingwood manufacturer of this city, was struck by lightning and killed at 6 o'clock this evening. A heavy thun-der-shower prevailed at the time. Gassaway and another colored man were ling in the doorway of the former's stable, on Belvidere street. A ball of | Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch. fire came flying toward them, and both were stricken to the ground. The next moment passers-by discovered that Gassaway was dead and his friend stunned. The electric current ripped Gassaway's coat and trousers and tore the shoe off his left foot. A white spot, circular in shape and five mches in diameter, was found over the region of his heart. A physician stated that the lightning struck him there.

PENNSYLVANIA.

ERIE: A terrific thunder-storm passed over this section of the country ast night. While it broke a protracted drought and put out the forest fires which have destroyed millions of feet of lumber and several thousand acres of timber-land near Tracy, it also did great damage . Two inches of rain fell during the storin. The storm was terrific in the vicinity of Corry. The residence of Joseph Spierman was struck by lightning and Mrs. Spierman was killed. The neighbors found Spierman and the three children apparently dead. were found in time to save them from being cremated.

PITTSBURG : A severe electrical and wind-storm, accompanied by rain and hail, visited this section early this morning, doing great damage to fruits and cereals. The storm broke over the city about 2 o'clock and continued without abatement for three hours, and during that time the rainfall was one and a half inches. Along the Ohio river between Steubenville and this city the storm was particularly severe, and the effects of it are shown in ruined fields of wheat, oats, corn, grass, and fruits. Small houses were lifted from their foundations, buildings unroofed, fences and trees blown down, and outhouses torn to pieces. In the city cellars and basements were inundated, but no serious damage resulted. No casualties were reported.

CONNECTICUT.

NEW HAVEN: Early this evening a heavy thunder-shower broke over this city. Among those who watched the atorm was Mrs. Michael Boenich, of Allingtown, a small suburb west of the city. Her two children and her little sister were playing under a large tree in front of the house, and Mrs. Boenich ran out to bring them in. Half way Boenich between the tree and the house she was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The three children were knocked down by the shock and stunned. Mrs. Boenich's shoes were torn off her feet, but no marks were found on the body to show where the electric fluid struck She was twenty-six years old. The children soon recovered conscious-ness, and, beyond being badly shaken up, will escape serious results.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO: Last night's storm was a severe one on the lake. The wind blew great gusts, and nearly all night there was a furious gale. Notwithstanding the severity of the storm there were comparatively no accidents to vessels reported this morning. The storm came down the lake about 7 o'clock last eve-ning, the wind blowing from the north-

MICHIGAN. .

DETROIT : Yesterday's storm in this neighborhood was very severe, and reports of damage are just coming in. The large hailstones cut down corn and other vegetation, while leaves and branches were torn from trees. In Pringwells the damage was especially great. Several houses and barns were struck by lightning, and two barns were burned to the ground. Florists also report heavy losses, and, besides the plants were stripped of their foliage and torn up by the roots. Rain was badly needed, but yesterday's storm did several thousand dollars' damage in the suburbs of this city. The storm was general throughout the State.

TEXAS. FORT WORTH : Reports continue to come in showing the extent of Monday night's storm. The storm swept from north to south over a belt of country otween Taylor and Dallas counties, a district covering about one fourth of the State, but not including the droughtstricken sections of West Texas. While the gale has done $50,000 damage to property and crops, the rain has insured a fine cotton crop in the heart of the cotton district of Texas. At De Leon, in Comanche country, the gale developed into a cyclone. The Baptist church, the academy, and five business-houses were completely wrecked. Several dwelling houses were also blown down. At the Covis ranch, in Duvall county, dred.

the lightning struck a house in which the wives of four ranchmen were sleeping, killing all of them instantly. The storm also developed into a cyclone at Aledo, in Parker county. Several farmhouses and eight dwellings were razed to the ground. Hillsborough, Decatur, Sulphur Springs, Collinsville, and Aurora all report a severe sand-storm, with several buildings blown down and great damage.

WEST VIRGINIA. WHEELING: One of the most severe hail-, rain-, and wind-storms which has ever visited the Upper Ohio Valley passed over the region between this city and Steubenville at 4 o'clock this casting house and nail-factory being blown away, and several resi-dences and barns badly damaged. At Fernwall the residence of William White and the barns of David-Cross creek the destruction of property was great-houses were unroofed, orchards uprooted, and barns destroyed. In Steubenville many residences were partially unroofed, while hundreds of fine shade-trees were blown down. Reports of damage are coming in from all the surrounding country, and the ag-gregate of the loss will not be known for several days. No lives were lost

CLEVELAND: The storm which passed over Northern Ohio last night was of unusual severity, and reports are coming from every section of great damage to crops caused by the hail and heavy rain and to property from electrical disturbances. In Shelby the lightning struck ten different places in twenty minutes, and several barns were burned and dwelling-houses shattered. In Holmes county the storm proved very destructive. Many persons feared a tornado and remained trembling in their cellars while the storm was at its height. The hailstones were the largest ever known in Northern Ohio. Some of them were of the size of hens' eggs and were of an irregular shape, fully three inches long. At Coits, a summer resort near Cleveland, the hailstones were gathered by the bushel and used for freezing icecream. Green-houses and skylights suffered severely from the pelting received from this shower of icicles.

PETERSBURG. Hall-Storm-Struck by Lightning-Suits for Camages-Continued Ratus, &c.

JULY 15, 1886. A severe hail-storm is reported to have occurred in the neighborhood of City Point last evening, which did considerable damage to the growing crops. The stones are said to have been of un-Usual size.

During the progress of a thunderstorm several evenings ago a large stack of oats on the farm and near the residence of Mr. J. M. Jordan, in Prince George county, was struck b lightning and burned to the ground The frequency and severity of thunderstorms in this section during the past two weeks have been something remarkable.

The quarterly term of the Hustings Court met to-day. There are a number of criminal cases on the docket, but none of them of unusual importance. There are several interesting suits for damages to be tried during the term. Among these are a suit for slander filed by Mrs. M. Morse against Mr. Isadore Reinsch, a Hebrew merchant, for $5,000 damages, and a suit of Overton against $2,500 damages. These will come up for trial next week. A white citizen named Williamson was to-day convicted of assault upon a negro and sent to jail for one hour and fined $10.

More than usual interest attaches to the election of teachers in the public schools this year by the City Board of Education. It is doubtful, however, whether the Board will consent to drop any of the old and faithful teacher whose services have been tried for years. But it is said that a good deal of canvassing has been in progress. The Board will elect to-night.

There seems to be no end to the rain. Every day and every night copious showers fall, and the ground continues so wet that the farmers are unable to do any work in their fields. A great deal of injury has been done to the wheat and oats stacked in the field, which bave begun to sprout freely. ROBIN ADAIR.

Opening of the Normal Institute—Personal. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

JULY 15, 1886. The Normal Institute was formally opened last night at the Opera-House. Charles E. Kemper, Esq., of this city. delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mr. Frank M. Smith, of Tennessee, who is in charge of the Institute for the term. Professor Parr, of Indiana, who has been selected by Dr. Buchanan as one of the assistants, also delivered an adiress. Senator James N. Stubbs, of Gloucester, was noticed to be in the audience. He was waited upon and escorted to the stand. He responded in a speech shounding in eloquent sentiments and delivered in his felicitous manner.

Rains continue at intervals, but the larger portion of time gives us clear weather, which is used to great advantage by the farmers.

Captain William T. Patton, of Buchanan, connected with the Internal-Revenue Department, is here and unwell. He is confined to his room, but not dangerously sick.

Bishop Whittle and family spent Monday here, and then went to Rawley Springs.

HENRY COUNTY.

The Rains and the Crops-Improve ments.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch. MARTINSVILLE, July 14, 1886. Although the settled rain we have been having so long seems to have broken up, yet we are visited every evening with a severe thunder-storms and beautiful electrical displays. This county has been particularly unfortu-nate, and suffered most dreadfully from the long-continued and heavy rainfalls. The crops were never worse. Lowlands are almost entirely worthless. Some have not planted their bottom lands, and but few have been able to work them. Wheat was greatly damaged in the shocks. Oats are very much blown down, and consequently the loss will be heavy. Tobacco is sorry. In some portions of the county the floods have swept everything before them. Although business is generally dull, yet there is a good deal of improvement going on in our town. |Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch NORFOLK, July 15, 1886. Howitzers have encountere drenching rains since their arrival at Ocean View, but are comparatively comfortable in camp. On Tuesday the Howitzers will accept an invitation of the Norfolk Blues to visit Virginia Beach, when the former will take their battery along, and there will be a target contest between the gunners of the wo companies in the afternoon. The isitors will dine with the Blues at the hotel, and at night there will be a grand hop given in their honor. As the Blues will give their annual public excursion to the Beach the same day, our society belles will doubtless turn out en masse to grace the occasion. Mr. John B. The Monticello Grape- and Fruit-Growers' Association. Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

JULY 15, 1886. The Monticello Grape- and Fruit-Growers' Association held an interesting meeting yesterday-H. L. Lyman charge a certain per cent, to compensate finds that in this way it can get the advantage of reduced prices. The same committee strongly urge fruit-packers to refuse all but first-class grapes, this being the only certain way to maintain good reputation and high prices. The committee in seeking the greatest security for members of the Association have even made a list of reliable comission merchants in the different cities which are markets of our grapes and other fruit, and recommend members to deal with them.

The Association considered favorably plan for receiving telegrams each day from the fruit markets, giving quotations and the state of the market, which

A resolution was adopted providing for districting the county so as to enable the Visiting Committee to better discharge the duties of visiting and inspecting the various vineyards in the county. This committee—consisting of Messrs. Merrick, Minor, Mehring, Van Doren, Macmurdo, Barlow, Woolnough, Long. and Holladay-make a written report of their observations.

The following gentlemen were elected members of the Association: Wetsel, of Greene county; J. H. Barksdale, of Charlottesville; W. F. Wickham, Richmond; Professor Ormend Stone, University of Virginia; E. W. Snead, of Charlottesville; J. W. Goss, Stony Point; H. B. Burnley, Charlottesville; L. W. Taylor, Shadwell.

NEW KENT.

Terrific Storm-Crops-Political. Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch. NEW KENT COURTHOUSE, VA., [

July 14, 1886. } by one of the most territic thunderstorms ever experienced by our oldest citizens. There was hardly an interval of a second between the dashes of lightning, and every few moments there were deafening peals of thunder. The rainfall, though great, was not near so heavy as usually follows such storms.

Crops in our section are very much in need of work, and unless we have dry weather soon very little corn will be made in our neighborhood.

Politically our county is quiet, the rain seeming to cast a damper upon politics, as upon everything else.

[Leesburg Mirror.] Saturday morning a daughter of Mr. James Dorrell, living a couple of miles from Woodgrove, in this county, was bitren by a copper-head snake. The young lady, who is about eighteen years of age, had gone out into the yard pretty early in the morning to attend to some duties, when she was bitten, and, though aware of the dangerous nature of the wound, she pluckily attacked and killed the snake. Remedies were at once applied to her wound and a physician summoned from Hillsboro. At last accounts the lady was thought to be out of all danger.
